

INDEX

- Wagogo, the, of German East Africa, their ceremony at the new moon, ii.
143
- Wahehe, a Bantu tribe of German East Africa, the worship of the dead among the, ii. iS3 sqq. ; their belief in a supreme god Nguruhc, 188 sq.
- Wailing of women for Adonis, i. 224
- Waja*,ga of German East Africa, their way of appeasing ghosts of suicides, i.
292 ?<?.*; their human sacrifices at irrigation, ii. 38
- Wales, All Souls' Day in, ii. 79
- Wallachia, harvest custom in, i. 237
- Wamara, a worshipful dead king, ii. 174
- Waning of the moon, theories to account for the, ii. 130 ; time for felling timber, 135 sqq.
- War, sacrifice of a blind bull before going to, ii. 250 sq.
•-----dance of king before the ghosts of his ancestors, ii. 192
- Warner, Mr., on CniTre ideas about lightning, ii. 177 ii.<sup>1</sup>
- Warramunga of Central Australia, their belief in the reincarnation of the dead,
i. 100 ; their tradition of purification
by fire, 180 /?.-
- Warts supposed to be affected by the moon, ii. 149
- Water thrown on the last corn cut, a rain-charm, i. 237 sq. ;
marvellous
properties attributed to, at Midsummer
(the festival of St. John), 246 sqq. ;
prophetic, drunk on St. John's Eve, 247
- of Life, L 9
- Waterbrash, a Huzul cure for, ii. 149 sq.
- Wave accompanying earthquake, i. 202
- <sup>s #</sup>
- Weaning of children, belief as to the,
in Angus, ii. 148
- Weavers, caste of, i. 62
- Weeks, Rev. J. H., on inconsistency of savage thought, i. 5 n. ; on the names
for the supreme god among many tribes of Africa, ii. 186 ?f.<sup>5</sup>
- I'Vellalaick, festival of the dead among the Letts, ii. 74
- Wen-Aminon, Egyptian traveller, i. 14, 75 •'?
- West, Oriental religions in the, i. 298
- W-
- Westermann, D., on the worship of Nyakang among the Shilluks, ii. 165
- Whalers, their bodies cut up and used as charms, ii. 106
- Wheat forced for festival, i. 243, 244 25<sup>1</sup> s/l"> 253
---, and barley, the cultivation of,
introduced by Osiris, ii. 7 ;
discovered
by Isis, 116

Whip made of human skin used in ceremonies for the prolongation of the king's life, ii. 224, 225
Whitby, All Souls' Day'at, ii. 79 White, Rev. G. E., on dervishes of Asia
Minor, i. 170
White, Miss Rachel Evelyn (Mrs.
Wedd),
on the position of women in ancient Egypt, ii. 214 Tz.<sup>1</sup>, 216 n.<sup>1</sup>
White the colour of Upper Egypt, ii.
21 7.<sup>1</sup>

---• birds, souls of dead kings incarnate

in, ii. 162
----bull, soul of a dead king
incarnate
in a, ii. 164
----Crown of Upper Egypt, ii.
20, 21
?.<sup>1</sup>; worn by Osiris, 87
----roses dyed red by the blood of Aphrodite, i. 226
Whydah, King of, his worship of serpents, i. 67; serpents fed at,
86 n.<sup>1</sup>
Wicked after death, fate of the, in Egyptian religion, ii. 14
Widow-burning in Greece, i. 177
«.<sup>3</sup>
Widowed Flamen, the, ii. 227
sqg.
Wiedemann, Professor A.,
on Wen-Ammon, i. 76 n.<sup>1</sup>; on the Egyptian
name of Isis, ii. 50 ».<sup>4</sup> Wigtownshire, harvest custom in, i. 237
n*
Wiirnbaiio tribe of South-Eastern Australia, their medicine-men, i. 75
».<sup>4</sup>
Wilkinson, Sir J. G., on corn-stuffed effigies of Osiris, ii. 91 «.<sup>s</sup>
Wilson, C. T., and R. W.
Felkin, on the worship of the dead kings of Uganda, ii. 173 «.<sup>2</sup>
Winckler, H., his excavation sat
Boghaz-
Keui, i. 125 n., 135 n.
Winged deities, i. 165 sq.
---disc as divine emblem, i. 132
Winnowing-fans, ashes of human victims
scattered by, ii. 97, 106
Winter called Cronus, ii. 41
---sleep of the god, ii. 41
---solstice reckoned the Nativity of the Sun, i. 303; Egyptian ceremony at the, ii. 50
Wissowa, Professor G., on introduction
of Phrygian rites at Rome, i.
267 n.;
on Orcus, ii. 231 n.<sup>s</sup>; on Ops and Consus, 233 n.<sup>o</sup>; on the marriage of the Roman gods, 236 n.<sup>1</sup> Wives of dead kings sacrificed at their tombs, ii. 168
Wives, human, of gods, i.

61 sqg., ii.
207; in Western Asia and Egypt, 70
sqg.
Wiwa chiefs reincarnated in pythons, ii.
i93
YVogait, Australian tribe, their belief in conception without cohabitation, i. 103